B. g, (Feb), by Mendelssohn – Western Curl, by Curlin. Trainer Carroll Josie. Bred by Chiefswood Stables Limited (Ont–C).

SAUGEEN led narrowly while vying with an inner rival around both turns, shook free in upper stretch, drifted out leaving the furlong grounds, lugged back in when the rider used a right handed crop at the sixteenth pole then held sway. COMMERCE pursued from midpack two wide and between horses, inched closer turning for home, split rivals in upper stretch, dueled for place with an outer rival through the final furlong and held. MONEY MAN trailed along the inside, gained four wide rounding the far turn, bid for place tucking three wide entering the lane, dueled with an inner rival for that position through the final furlong but was denied. REB laid off of the pace in the htree to two path, moved out to the four path rounding the far turn then stayed on mildly while hanging on his left lead to edge fourth late. NOBLE ANTHEM vied for the lead inside of the eventual winner, yielded to that one in upper stretch and gave way. NOMOLIMBO hopped slightly and broke a step slow, laid off of the pace along the inside, took closer order nearing the backstretch, tracked before chasing around the far turn and failed to menace. UP COUNTRY tracked four wide, pressed the top pair approaching the far turn, came under strong urging with five sixteenths to go then yielded out of tight quarters between foes entering the lane and gave way. KINGSMERE stalked in the three path, then ebtween horses down the backstretch, but faltered leaving the seven sixteenths pole, pulled up in midstretch then walked off.
