MISS LOUISE raced in the two-path near the back early on, made a nice mid-race move to be in range of SILENT STRIKE on the lead near the quarter pole, dueled, chased that rival through the stretch, was not making much headway, then closed the gap in the final yards and got a favorable bob at the wire. SILENT STRIKE was close to the pace but three-wide through the first turn, moved up to press the pace late on the backstretch run, took the lead near the quarter pole, then was challenged to the outside by MISS LOUISA, kept that rival at bay through most of the stretch run but lost the head bob at the wire. LINDA FAYE lacked any early speed and settled in at the back, started a sustained bid from the three-furlong pole, and finished with good late interest to gain third. MORALLY COMPLEX raced close up along the rail, did not respond when asked to kick on midway through the far turn, and evenly through the stretch and outfinished for a minor award. MOM'S HANDS showed good speed but raced in the four-path, had a narrow lead down the backstretch despite keeping to the wide path, lost some ground on the far turn while trying to bear out, then flattened out in the stretch. LITTLEBITOFAQUEEN tracked in mid-pack through the early stages, then was outkicked through the stretch.
