Dk. b or br. m, (Apr), by Stealcase – Vow Me Over, by Broken Vow. Trainer Schmidt Denise. Bred by Albert Benton salmon Jr (La).

STEAL ME OVER, four wide between foes early, tapered in a path and moved up to prompt outside the leader, drew alongside leaving the far turn then dueled under confident handling past the five sixteenths, asserted herself when put to firm asking inside the three sixteenths and powered away while kept alert. CHAPELLETE settled early, was taken about five wide soon into the backstretch, edged up four deep nearing the far turn, circled about six wide into the lane, closed steadily and was along for the place. SEAMUS'S GIRL took over outside a rival heading to the first turn, set a rated pace in the two path, was dogged by the winner past the half, dueled leaving the five sixteenths to upper stretch, wandered outward inside the furlong grounds and gave way grudgingly. AGAMI, five wide outside rivals leaving the seven eighths, raced three deep past the five eighths, pursued between runners nearing the lane, shifted in for the final furlong and kept on with effort. ANITA'S VISION, headstrong between foes early, pulled her way forward four wide into the backstretch to stalk, remained four wide and gained past the three eighths, drifted out some chasing in the lane and came up empty. CRAFTROOM showed speed and vied inside into the first turn, rated back to stalk, chased inside a trio of runners leaving the three eighths, failed to kick on entering the lane and weakened. AVERI EVER AFTER, between rivals while within range, was under pressure past the five sixteenths and faltered through the drive.
