Dk. b or br. m, (Mar), by Country Day – Diamond Cutter , by Salute the Sarge . Trainer Thompson Kevin J. Bred by World War IV Racing (La).

DIAMOND COUNTRY was prompted while in range outside of the leader, pushed along in the three path around the turn, bid while swinging from the four path into the lane, took command passing the furlong grounds, and edged clear. STELLA GUITAR chased in the two path, was cued while in traffic midway around the turn, tipped outward down the stretch, and ran on for place. WHAT A HANGOVER bumped with an inner foe at the start, set the pace in the two path, waited rounding the turn, was cued just after the quarter, lost the lead before the eighth pole, then evened out late for show. TARKINGTON GIRL bumped with an outer foe at the start, moved up early to lay up close along the rail, waited along the rail around the turn, but faded in the stretch. LONG SHOT LOUISE stalked outside of rivals but weakened in the stretch. DOUBLE GEM trailed in the two path early, was roused passing the five-sixteenths pole, angled out passing the quarter, but failed to rally in the six path down the stretch. ALYSE PARKER raced off the pace in the four path but never threatened.
