Dk. b or br. g, (Apr), by Tamarando – Soul in One , by Perfect Soul–Ire . Trainer Flores Antonio. Bred by Eileen Matson (Cal).

ROBARANDO broke in and bumped, chased four then five wide on the turn, bid four deep in the lane, dug in late and edged inner trio for the score. LUCKY AND GONE got bumped from outside leaving the gate, raced up close from off the rail or outside a rival, challenged the leader from outside on the turn, took over in upper stretch, led into the final sixteenth and yielded grudgingly late. PINE RUN broke in and bumped, sprinted to the front, took pressure from LUCKY AND GONE on the turn, lost command in upper stretch, fought back through the lane and finished a game third. MEEKING broke a step slow, tracked from inside, drew closer in the two path on the turn, challenged inside a trio of runners and got outkicked. WINNING LOVER took a bump at the start, chased from inside, saved ground to the lane, angled out in upper stretch and finished willingly to whittle the gap late. EASY BREEZY trailed up the backstretch, saved ground to the stretch and was never a factor. SMOKEM MASTER laid off the pace early on, traveled three then two wide on the turn and failed to threaten.
