BITTER TRUTH ran far off the pace along the rail, swung into the five path near the quarter pole, surged through the final eighth and got up late for the photo. BIG COIN chased from the inside, advanced along the rail into the stretch, made bid near the eighth pole, bumped from outside as the early lead drifted past the sixteenth pole, and was nailed in the final strides. PRIDE OF QUEENS was unhurried at back of the field while two wide, swung four wide as they entered the lane and ran on willingly to grab the show spot. DAD'S BAD BUNNY was a step slow away from the gate, rushed up to duel on the outside, bumped the eventual runner-up past the sixteenth pole when he drifted in and was overtaken late. DESPITE chased the early leaders in the two path but failed to quicken through the lane. VASHON dueled for the lead from inside but tired in the final eighth.
