PIT STOP MAN was nudged clear nearing the five eighths, set a rated pace two to three wide, responded when set down in upper stretch, opened up under a strong drive leaving the furlong grounds then was kept alert to the final yards. B WEST prompted between runners early, gained three wide past the five sixteenths, circled five wide into the lane, flattened out in deep stretch but managed to save the place. TUFF CONSTITUTION saved ground nearing the half, angled out and took closer order three to four wide nearing the quarter pole, pursued four wide and to the inside of B WEST leaving the three sixteenths, kept on with effort while on his left lead, was pulled up entering the clubhouse turn, walked onto the equine ambulance then was transported off the track. TINY LAKE, sluggish early, saved ground into and through the lane and had some belated interest. KBCYA LATER, three deep stalking near the half, was put to pressure four wide soon after, failed to keep pace past the three eighths and faded. UNIWINNER broke slowly, saved ground and was outrun.
