Ch. f, (Mar), by Practical Joke – Mezah, by Tapit. Trainer Robb John J. Bred by James G Doyle (NY).

STYLISH GEM, rated back along the inner rail entering the turn, stalked the duel, swung four wide at the head of the stretch, swept to command outside horses in upper stretch, was under urging, drifted in and pulled away. LET HER PASS BY, three deep leaving the backstretch, dueled outside MODERNIS SILVER and weakened throught he stretch. MODERNIS SILVER sped to the front, stayed near the inner rail, dueled to upper stretch and faded. ROSIE'S FORTUNE bobbled at the start, was a four wide factor outside horses leaving the backstretch and gave way approaching the stretch. RED DRAPES stayed near the inner rail on the turn while outrun.
