Gr/ro. f, (Apr), by Engage – Pink Tights, by Let Goodtimes Roll. Trainer Smith Hamilton A. Bred by Lemon Creek Farm (Md).

PINKY SWEAR broke on top, secured the inside and was nicely handled while taking outer pressure from a pair of rivals, emerged in a duel with HURRICANE LYNN entering the lane, took a brush from that one near the three sixteenths then again battling past mid stretch, kept on tenaciously and proved best under steady encouragement. HURRICANE LYNN moved up and bid three deep into the turn, sparred outside the winner from the five sixteenths, got in a few times forcing contact with PINKY SWEAR, fought on to the wire but just could not get past. TRULY AN HONOR, bumped at the break, steadied briefly when in close soon after, gained inside past the five sixteenths, worked outward in upper stretch and churned on. SNOW BELLA, brushed at the break, angled out early and rated forwardly four wide, gained under asking past the five sixteenths, failed to kick on leaving mid stretch and faded. SMOKESHOW broke inward bumping a rival, angled out early, lost ground five wide a long way and came up empty. KARA M S vied outside the winner early on, battled between foes from the far turn to about the five sixteenths, failed to quicken on, shifted out and weakened.
