B. f, (Mar), by Improbable – Laura's Angle , by Union Rags . Trainer McKenzie Daniel J. Bred by Michael Anthony Slezak (NY).

PROBABLE ANGLE prompted the pace while saving ground, seized an opening and bid inside a trio of foes leaving the five sixteenths, poked a head in front soon after, spurted clear under a drive in upper stretch then steadily widened while kept alert. SUNSET EXPRESS, with the pace four wide and between rivals, bumped with an inner foe leaving the three eighths, circled four wide into the stretch, chased on past mid stretch and kept on with effort to earn the place. TAMMY'S CRUISER sped clear early, set the pace off the inside, took outer pressure into and around the turn, was pestered from both sides near the five sixteenths, ceded the lead after a half, kept on with good effort to about the sixteenth marker then faded. CHRISTY MY LOVE forced the pace three wide and between foes, bumped with SUNSET EXPRESS near the five sixteenths then failed to drum up a serious stretch response. STROLL TRIPPIN, five deep nearing the half, failed to keep pace leaving the three furlong marker and weakened.
