B. m, (Apr), by So Big Is Better A – Grand Masquerade A , by Monarch Ah A . Trainer Johnson Thunder. Bred by ED WILSON (Tex).

MASQUERADESOBIA pressed the pace from three wide to the turn, took command on the bend, drew away from the early pacesetter in mid-stretch and repelled the late bid of the runner-up to be clear at the wire in a game effort. RS FORTEZA was reserved in hand down the backside along the fence, saved ground on the turn while closing the gap, angled five wide in upper stretch, mounted a good rally to threaten inside the eighth pole and was turned away by the winner having to settle for second best. WMA SMOKE SIGNAL was slow early to be the trailer in a strung out field, commenced a steady rally at the three-eighths pole and finished willingly without threatening the top pair. AA TAKE A CHANCE broke well to be the early leader, dueled on the front-end to midway on the turn, continued persistently in upper stretch to still contend at the eighth pole and weakened late. QUICK RAE AA stalked the pace for a half and faded down the lane. LIKE MOULIN ROUGE was not a factor. MON SAFIR chased the leaders to the turn, was having difficulty getting out on the bend, was eased at the top of the lane galloping home and walked off.
