Ch. g, (Apr), by The Hunk – Spicy Suprise , by Latent Heat . Trainer Dupuy Allen. Bred by Eureka Thoroughbred Farm (Tex).

TEXAS HUNK set a pressured early pace, raced off the rail into the turn, kept on, while drifting out and edged clear. IT IS COMPLETE forced the pace while racing five wide into the turn, ranged up through the turn made a slight bid on the winner, couldn't sustain the run was no match late while drifting in. I TIZ DIVINE pressed the early pace while racing three wide into the turn, angled out early stretch weakened in late and held for the show. GO LANG was reserved early raced along the inside into the turn, angled out to the six path out of the turn and offered no late rally. CINCO BLAKE was up close early while racing four wide between rivals, weakened through the stretch and faded late. BONFIRE DANCING unhurried early, raced three wide into the turn, angled out to the seven path out of the turn and never fired.
