Dk. b or br. g, (Apr), by Violence – Al Max Diner, by End Sweep. Trainer Evans Justin. Bred by Buck Pond Farm Inc (Ky).

PRISONER behind the first flight inside, steered out to be five wide by late backstretch, advanced far turn, challenged four wide by late in the bend, shook clear into the lane and maintained daylight to the wire. CITY OF ANGELS in mid pack up the backstretch toward the inside, came three wide for the drive, rallied steadily to prevail for the place. CHEZ WHIZ in mid pack up the backstretch while well wide, advanced into contention while five wide late in the turn, could not get to the winner through the final furlong while outkicked for the second spot. POSITIVITY broke forwardly, contested the issue up front while three wide and between foes, fell back a bit late in the turn, ran on through the lane to finish up evenly. COMPETITIVE IDEA in the second flight outside, three to four wide turning for home, lacked a serious closing response to finish up evenly. RING SEEKER with the pace outside backstretch, continued to vie while four wide through the turn, remained prominent into the lane, tired in the run to the wire. BLING MOUNTAIN off a step slow, void of speed for a half, improved position with some belated interest. SIXHOOFSEVENHOOF also broke a step slow, raced in the back as well, improved position by passing mostly tiring rivals. BETTYS CASH away well, set a heavily pressured pace while closest to the inside, faltered in the drive. CAPE TRAFALGAR void of speed, remained always back. WEST OF ME in the second flight and main body off rail, encountered some minor traffic two furlongs in, faded. GRAZEN SUN hustled up from between horses to be involved in the fray early, stopped from between horses late in the turn, jogged in far back.
