Ch. m, (Feb), by First Samurai – Mary n' Eileen , by Indy King . Trainer McBurney Patrick B. Bred by ABL Stable (NJ).

ALLISON PARK broke sharp to show the way early,,got clear before a quarter in the two path, continued to maintain daylight into and through upper stretch, enough late to last while between the next two runners at the wire after allowing BRAMBLE BLAST the rail late. CAROLYNCAROLINE in the second flight for three furlongs in the three path, stalled in upper stretch, gained some momentum with less than a furlong remaining and finished willingly to be getting to the winner late while narrowly gaining the place. BRAMBLE BLAST back off the pace and the inside, moved to the inside turn, rallied up the inside to finish up willingly to also be closing the gap on the winner while narrowly missing the second spot. I'MWISHINGONASTAR closet to the leader while off the inside, asked along into the lane, continued to chase past the furlong marker then lacked a closing punch while behind the winner in the two path at the wire. CHITCHATCHITCHAT one paced while outside, continued four wide through the turn, also lacked a finishing kick. CLAY SOLDIER also turned in a one paced effort in failing to muster a closing rally. AUNT JO in the second flight and within striking distance early, faded. SOUTH BOUNDARY remained back and outside to never threaten. DON'T TELL TAMMO broke in a tangle to spot the field insurmountable lengths and lose all chance.
