MARK MY WORDS got pinballed and squeezed at the start, steadily advanced four-wide up the backstretch, continued a forward move in-hand through the turn, took command of the race in upper stretch, and drew clear in the late stages. MISS ELECKTRA broke with the pack but had to be coaxed a bit to keep pace early, made a strong four-wide move on the turn under a drive, could not get to the eventual winner in the stretch but finished well to be clear of the next horse in a good effort. SUN OF WAR broke a step slow, then was hustled forward, chased the early leader to the turn, then went evenly late and just held for the minor award. LEAVETHENINETYNINE outpaced early, advanced to regain contact with the field, then steadied before the turn, switched to the outside through the turn, then came about seven-wide into the stretch, closed in late despite lugging in, and just missed hitting the board. GLOBAL EVENT broke on top but was quickly overtaken, settled mid-pack up the backstretch, then retreated to last through the turn, kept to the inside, and passed tired foes to improve. RICO SUAVE got bumped sideways after the start by the inside rival, took some time to get untracked, and was last early, made a four-wide forward move through the turn, failed to change leads in the stretch, and faltered. WATER INTO WINE hustled into the early pace mix after an awkward start, was unable to contest the front, then came under a stiff drive on the turn and had little to give in the stretch. UNBRIDLED O'BRIEN broke sharply, went to the lead passing the five-furlong pole, and went clear on the turn, was overtaken in upper stretch, and had nothing left in the final furlong. RIPMAN raced close up three-wide, weakened leaving the three-furlong pole, and tired in the stretch.
