PUBLISHER broke back, moved up to race in the second flight into the first turn between horses, remained within striking distance toward the inside up the backstretch, tipped out three wide when moving to challenge turning for home, engaged the leader from the outside inside the furlong grounds and edged clear late under steady handling. ECHO AGAIN took control after the start, rated while setting the pace toward the inside, responded when challenged in the second turn, disposed of that rival to be clear again into the stretch, briefly raced on equal terms with the winner with less than a furlong remaining then could not match strides, clear of the others. WOODCOURT closest to the runner up from the outside, moved on that one and challenged midway on the final bend, could not keep up into the lane, weakened gradually through the lane but remained comfortably clear for the show. CLASSIC CAR WASH lacked early foot in the two path, continued back the middle half, swung out four wide exiting the final turn, staged a mild rally to better position a bit, did not pose a serious threat. TIMEOUT settled off the pace and in the inside behind the pace, three to four wide turning into the stretch, failed to fire and finished up evenly. TONKA WARRIOR saved ground to no avail in remaining back and lacking a closing response. WINNEMAC AVENUE stumbled at the start, moved out in the first turn to race off the inside, three wide into the far turn, floated out five wide for the drive, failed to muster a rally.
