B. g, (May), by Mark Valeski – Ready for Life , by More Than Ready . Trainer Witt II Ernie. Bred by Tracy K Selby (Ark).

REBEL RIDGE moved up along the inside to take control soon after the start, continued to set a pressured pace through the turn along the inside, shook clear when straightened for home, maintained daylight to the wire under steady handling. EMINENT CAT in the second flight while three wide through the turn, asked along into the lane, rallied well out in the strip to annex the place, not a serious threat to the winner. FLAT OUT BLESSED pressed the winner for a half from the outside, fell off that one in upper stretch chased past the furlong marker, caught for the place. GO GO RO RO in the second flight up the backstretch in the three path, headed up the second pack through the turn, lacked a closing kick in the drive. ARKANSAS DAVE lacked early foot, raced three wide through the turn, improved position a bit in the drive without posing a serious threat. UNCLE TATER settled off the pace, raced between horses through the turn, went evenly through the stretch in lacked a serious response. IGNITING EMBERS in mid pack and along the inside, had little for the drive. HUMOROUS SAINT off a step slow, remained back in lacking a rally. HIGH ARCTIC made little impact inside. RULY'S STREET void of any early foot, remained always back. GLORYLAND BAND trailed most of the way to be always outrun. STEEL THUNDER off a step slow, was never a factor outside.
