THICK AS THIEVES found early placement around the middle of the pack three wide, cued through the far turn to enter the stretch in a prominent position, took charge at the eighth pole, held under strong urging. BILLY WHITE SHOES (IRE) settled off the pace, was roused four wide through the far turn, showed a strong effort but was held off by the winner. MIAMI KAZ showed good early speed, met a bid from JOEVIA'S FIRST at the five eighths marker and repelled that one before the far turn, met another bid from THICK AS THIEVES at the final furlong and ultimately gave way. TWIST 'N TWIRL was rated on the inside, closed in through the far turn, flattened out in the stretch. MAX BARLEY trailed after the first turn, picked off a couple rivals in the far turn, passed one more tiring foe in the stretch. JOEVIA'S FIRST tracked the pace three wide, launched an early bid at the five eighths but was repelled, chased between foes in the far turn, retreated in the stretch. COACH KRIV quickly found a forward position in the two path, looked to contest the pace at the five eighths but was squeezed back, slowly retreated then on. SOUPER VINNIE was reluctant to load the gate, hopped at the start, trailed through the first turn, picked off a couple foes up the backstretch, retreated in the stretch.
