RECKLESS ABANDON assumed command in the early going, pulled clear into the stretch and held sway thereafter under a drive. MARLAS DREAM outpaced while four wide, was angled in on the turn under urging and stayed on in the stretch. ASHWEEE leaned at the back start costing her a few lengths, surged up while five wide into the turn and missed the place spot despite a willing response to stiff pressure. DAWS DOMINION chased the pace along the inside for a quarter mile and dropped back on the turn. LITTLE MISS LINDA was off a step slowly and always outrun.
