BOURBON TIME , quickly to the front, set a rated pace two wide, denied an inner bid nearing the five eighths, went clear with a half mile remaining, repelled an outer challenge from BATANT nearing the quarter pole, responded to firm asking, eagerly pulled away and was kept alert to the wire. BATANT bobbled at the break, regrouped to race inside, checked when in tight near the six and a half furlong marker, angled out leaving the far turn, made a menacing three wide run to take aim on the winner, failed to quicken with that one soon into the lane, chased on through the final furlong and had enought left to save the place. HURRICANE JERRY prompted inside the winner early on, dropped back some leaving the far turn, remained inside with pursuit through the lane and kept on with effort. TREASURE OUR TIME , three wide a long way, lacked a rally. PONCHITO ROJO broke awkwardly, was used four wide into the first turn, chased for three furlongs and faltered. LUCKY WARRIOR stalked the winner three wide, failed to kick on past the five sixteeths, shifted in soon into the stretch and faltered.
