THIRTEEN G'S stalked the pace to the far turn, rallied three wide leaving the quarter pole to engage the leader in mid-stretch and pulled away in the final sixteenth. GIDEON prompted the pace to the three-eighths pole, assumed command on the fianl bend opening a clear lead, had no answer when challenged by the winner and ran-on willingly as second best. RACHAEL'S WAGON unhurried to be the trailer in the compact field for the first five-eigths, rallied with a steady bid to be along for the show without impact on the top pair. KING REIGERT reserved off the pace while well placed to the far turn and responded with a mild, non-threatening bid coming home. BENGAL CAT set the pace for a half mile and came up empty midway on the far turn.
