PANCHO SLIPS AWAY broke well to take command from the gate, opened a clear early lead, raced three wide in the turn, responded when challenged, repelled the runner-up in upper stretch and kicked away in the final furlong. NICOLE'S WILL prompted the pace to the bend, rallied along the fence to the pacemaker's inside to threaten at the quarter pole, failed to pass through the lane and ran on to be second best. MORODER stalked the pace throughout, lacked a closing rally when called upon and finished evenly to hold the show. COUSIN ED went evenly failing to menace. MARINARA SAUCED was one-paced never posit n a threat.
