SWISS GUARD sped to the lead at the start and led the way around the first turn, set the pace up the backstretch and held firm around the turn, turned back the bid from CUPID'S THUNDER at the top of the lane and pulled away. CUPID'S THUNDER was forwardly placed through early stages, continued to sit just off the leader around the far turn, given cue two wide at the head of the lane, could not go with the eventual winner but ran on and finished second best. BEYOND BEST settled off the pace, was set down three to four wide for the drive, continued hard ridden into the final furlong and got a head up for show. INDIAN CAT tracked the pacesetter, had to sit patiently around the far turn, angled three wide at the head of the lane, given cue, ran on and got edged for show. BOURBON LIFE raced off the pace and never menaced. PARKWAY got pulled up mid-way up the backstretch and was taken via equine ambulance.
