JEAN VALJEAN settled just off the duel up front three to four paths off the inside down the backstretch and then just off the inside through the turn coming under coaxing near the quarter pole, swung four wide into upper stretch, weakened in the late stages. KEEWAYDIN chased three then two wide from the tail of the field under encouragement from the five-sixteenths pole, tipped three to four wide into upper stretch, had no kick. NOTHING BETTER tracked the pace along the inside just off the duel up front, got roused spinning just off the inside into upper stretch, weakened.
