WETZEL pressed the pace two wide then along the inside for five furlongs, made the lead, shook clear under left handed urging in upper stretch and won under strong handling. OAKS HONEY pressed the pace along the rail into the clubhouse turn, dropped back a bit to trail before a half mile, came on again three then two wide through deep stretch and got up for second. RELISH THE RIDE never far back, finished with good courage three wide. OKLAHOMA JOE gained a narrow lead three wide on the clubhouse turn, set a pressured pace two wide to the three eighths pole, kept on the balance of the trip but was outfinished. PAINT THE TOWN well placed, was through after a half.
