DOS AMORES sprinted up the rail to make the lead just before the seven sixteenths marker, set a pressured pace into the stretch, widened before the furlong marker, was coxed with left handed urging past mid stretch and won in hand. KHALI J saved ground through the turn, angled out to the three path in upper stretch and finished clear for second. NEBLINA vied for the early lead three wide, loomed boldly midway on the turn then weakened in upper stretch. JOROPO failed to menace. NOT TODAY broke in front and set the pace for nearly a quarter mile, kept pressure to the quarter pole then stopped.
