OLLIE'S FOLLY bobbled a bit at the start, was headed briefly, took over nearing the half mile pole, shook clear on the turn and won under mild right handed urging. THAT'S THE WAY unhurried early, closed fast in the eight path through the stretch and finished well clear for second. JOHN FITZGERALD stalked the pace three wide, offered a mild bid in upper stretch then leveled off. SOCIAL HISTORY tracked the leaders three wide then along the inside, improved position before the quarter pole then came up empty. MARQUITOS M was no factor. REIGNING DREAM had speed between horses into the turn then weakened. DEW IT WITH CLASS had a brief lead along the inside, pressured the winner into the stretch and was through after a half.
