P J'S BOY broke in front, set a pressured pace two wide down the backstretch, shook clear on the turn and won under left handed urging. RIPMAN pressured the winner along the inside down the backstretch then could not keep pace and finished clear for second. REDDEN stalked the pace three wide and went evenly. BOAZ well placed inside, had no rally. EL CANELO ONE bumped at the start and was no threat. MARQUITOS M bumped at the start and was outrun.
