GREY BELLS dwelt at the break spotting the field multiple lengths, gathered momentum saving ground mid turn, swung four wide for the drive, closed relentlessly under pressure and on her left lead and got up in the final jumps. HEY SARA YOUGOTIT attended the pace three wide under some rating, bid three deep leaving the far turn, poked a head in front entering the stretch, edged away slightly under pressure past mid stretch, kept on gamely under steady hand encouragement but wasn't quite able to deny the winner's outer charge. MISSELEANOR disputed the pace along the inner rail, battled inside a pair of foes from mid turn to deep stretch then gave way grudgingly. BANGKOK BLAZE sparred outside MISSELEANOR through the backstretch run, stayed on while between runners mid turn to mid stretch then weakened late. QUEEN ZENA, outpaced through the opening furlong, saved ground mid turn and came up empty.
