CHANCES TAKEN was unhurried at the start, raced off the pace, closed in along the inside of the far turn to shadow the leaders in the upper stretch, launched a three wide bid to split foes at the sixteenth and dug in to be up in time. PURE CANE SUGAR tracked the pace from the inside, tipped out four wide in the upper stretch to begin a late drive for a gamely finish. PRINCE OF MEMPHIS pressed the early pace from the two path, contested the lead entering the stretch, dueled with the previous leader until giving way to driving foes in the final yards. SARK took command of a pressured pace, met a bid from PRINCE OF MEMPHIS entering the stretch, dueled with that foe in the upper stretch before meeting bids from two more foes late and got out-finished for any minor awards. GATE GUARD was between foes through the first turn, settled off the pace up the backstretch, took to the outside of the stretch and rallied well but came up just short. YELLOW JACKET tracked the pace three wide, faded down the stretch. DJOSER moved up through the first turn to track the pace four wide, flattened out in the stretch. BANG AND A BOOM hopped at the start, trailed throughout, no factor.
