ROCK HARD ROSE was away alertly for the early advantage at the break, took back to watch the contesting duo while three deep along the back straight, sat all alone measuring the front twosome around the bend, skimmed the fence closing in at the top of the lane and edged away in deep stretch for the win. CITORI began to lengthen stride soon after the start to take control inside foes by the five eighths pole, rolled along loose on the engine around the oval, shifted to the two path holding on in upper stretch, began to get weary at the furlong pole drifting out with a diminishing lead, could not fend off the winner inside when switching back to the incorrect lead late but did gut it out to save for the place share outside a rival in the end. MIGHT BEE TROUBLE settled on the rail in midfield, began to pick up the bit shifting out at the five sixteenths marker, moved to the four path making a run and finished up willingly moving inside a runner late just missing out for the battle for place at the finish line. GRETNA GREEN prompted the pace between down the backstretch, chased the loose pacesetter in vain throughout the turn making little headway, shifted to the three path in with a chance for a piece of the prize at the top of the stretch but evened out late for a minor role. ZIPPY GAMBLE was void of early foot seeing the group down the backside, lagged well behind throughout the turn but did show some late interest on the outside to catch the stablemate in the shadow of the wire for a position. ZIPFIRE had a stalking role ahead of only one rival in the beginning, took the short way around the bend but was making little progression, scraped paint turning for home but could not factor in the late running.
