B. g, (Mar), by Tapiture – Archerette , by Arch . Trainer Attard Kevin. Bred by Tall Oaks Farm (Ont–C).

PIERRE bobbled and bumped with a rival at the start, moved forward outside stalking four wide, moved to the lead by the five-sixteenths, shifted in leaving the far turn while being asked for more and responded by spurting clear, held safe while kept to the task. SIDE STREET was bumped into a rival at the start, settled outside the second flight four wide stalking the leading trio, was carried out a bit leaving the far turn, kept on outside runners in deep stretch to secure the place without threatening the winner. ONENIGHTSTANDARDS settled off the pace saving ground inside the second group, angled out leaving the far turn for room coming into upper stretch four wide, ran on from between runners to get show. EL KABONG was forwardly-placed pressed the leader from between foes three wide, was asked past the quarter pole, came in a bit in the stretch, was outkicked. COMPTON was bumped at the start, raced between foes three wide in the second flight, dropped back and was encouraged along three furlongs out, angled six wide turning for home, carried on to improve in the stretch. LAC MACAZA angled in settling at the rear near the inside, was forced to go wide leaving the far turn fanning seven wide into upper stretch, failed to rally. PALACE VIEW (IRE) was quick to take the lead, set the face shadowed by outside foes racing just off the rail, gave way in the stretch.
