MILITARY TIME was well-positioned stalking from outside, received mild encouragement at the five-sixteenths, asked for more coming to the top of the stretch making a bid soon after, lugged in about a furlong from home with the lead, continued to draw away. MARSHAL got away well, set the pace shifting in, was shadowed on the turn and challenged coming to the top of the stretch, overtaken in upper stretch and was put in tight quarters altering outside the new leader past the furlong marker, could not match strides with that rival and was second best. GOLDEN TRUTH pulled a bit inside moving forward despite restraint heading up the backstretch, angled five wide leaving the turn, kept on in the lane and was best of the rest. DEPUTY CURLIN settled off the pace, advanced outside foes four wide on the turn while ridden along from the five-sixteenths, floated six wide into upper stretch, came in a bit through the drive and ran on. LOUIS THE CHAMP switched out off the rail up the backstretch settling off the pace, was in a bit tight quarters between and behind foes midway up the straight, swung seven wide turning for home, passed a couple tired rivals. YLIVOIMAINEN was up close early, continued to stalk from off the fence, asked for more by the five-sixteenths but failed to rally. FLIRTING WITH FIRE switched out and moved forward chasing three to four wide mid-pack, was under urging by the three-eighths, faded in the stretch. MAD WORLD shifted in early, raced at the back near the inside and was never close enough to threaten. FOLLOWING AN OBJECTION BY THE TRAINER OF MARSHAL AGAINST MILITARY TIME ALLEGING INTERFERENCE, NO ACTION WAS TAKEN.
