DON IQUE had a good spot nestled on the rail behind the pacesetter, rated kindly inside of runners settling in mid-pack along the back straight, waited for the cue to go shifting out midturn, rallied three wide between horses in upper stretch, took the lead at the furlong pole in a tight battle and edged away late for the win. DECADENT DANISH prompted the pace outside initially, patiently took back between runners into the backstretch to let the outside rival force the pace, tracked between horses at the half, kept pace having no room to go on hold midway around the last turn, darted to the rail getting a seam at the top of the lane, loomed menacingly coming with a run on the fence at the furlong pole, switched back to the incorrect lead jumping the tire tracks from the starting gate losing momentum at the sixteenth pole when battling up top and could not recover in time settling for a tough second best at the finish line. PARADISE PERFECT shared the rear outside around the first turn, made an early move to press the frontrunner three deep at the five eighths marker, was repelled slightly to track the leader at the half, re-engaged outside on the far turn hounding the pacesetter on the final bend, angled out five wide in the hunt at the top of the lane and finished up mildly to be a non-threatening third at the wire. IMYOURMEDICINEMAN was hustled inside another fighting for the early command into the first turn, slowed the pace down into the backstretch with a new rival forcing the issue on the outside, shook clear by the half, had company again on the outside throughout the turn still up top by a slight margin on the fence, shifted to the two path clinging onto the lead with a host of rivals bearing down on either side, could not find more late and wilted by the furlong pole getting a minor share in the end. SOMEKINDA MISCHIEF travelled four wide on the first bend watching the lead duo, stalked outside in midfield down the backstretch, tried to make a rally taking the overland route four wide in the second turn, swung out widest in the six path turning for home but came up empty for the stretch run. ALLBETSAREOFF was allowed to settle at the back of the pack, continued to see the field down the backstretch, remained at the tail end but narrowed the margin through the final bend but could not threaten in the drive in the four path.
