BACHELOR PAD was away alertly leading on the outside, shook clear by the half moving well in hand up top, was left alone controlling the pace on the turn and was well rated to have plenty left in reserve for the stretch run to win comfortably for the gate to wire tally. HEMLO GOLD broke out at the start, sat isolated watching the front twosome in the beginning, tracked the lone leader between foes at the half, was shuffled back a touch losing position on the oval, moved out to the four path in upper stretch and closed in on the outside to best rest for the place share. UNCAPTURED MOMENT broke inwards on the break, had a tracking position outside in the early stages, kept a close eye on the pacesetter down the back straight, chased in vain throughout the turn and finished up willingly to capture the show award when crossing the finish line. EL COHETE was squeezed back being bounced around between horses at the start trailing, inched up taking the short way around the turn, moved to the three path in upper stretch, darted back to the fence by the eighth pole and settled on the fringes being on the losing end of the three way battle for the place share inside. ONE MORE BREW was forced in by the outside foe on the break, took back between rivals to be at the back of the pack midway along the backside, settled at the rear in the turn running, moved to the five path for the drive but could not get interested. THIS DUDE A BREEZE had the rail sitting in mid–division, edged closer by the half mile marker, kept pace following the frontrunner throughout the turn but folded just off the fence in the stretch running. POSTURING travelled four deep part of the group at the rear in the beginning, improved to be in the three path outside foes in mid–pack down the backside, could not advance outside another going three wide around the bend and showed little energy in the drive to the finish line.
