BACKROADSBILLY quickly made the lead, edged clear of pursuers, shot away swiftly in upper stretch, was best. SHAK TOWN got away well, settled in to stalk from inside, saved ground through the turn coming out at the top of the stretch with aim on the leader, was no match but second best. WARHOL settled off the pace, saved ground inside, secured show honors. IMPULSIVE BID stalked the eventual winner from outside, steadily weakened in the stretch. EXTRAORDINARY ONE (GB) bumped with a rival at the start, lacked early speed despite encouragement, saved ground on the turn, came off the fence for the drive and improved position. ELGIN PARK exchanged incidental contact early, chased from between runners mid-pack, came out in upper stretch, made no bid. BIG BOLD AND FIRST settled outside a foe at the rear, was one-paced and never a threat. CAJUN INFLUENCE bumped with a rival at the start then lightly with a different foe soon after, chased from outside three to four wide, dropped back and faded.
