MO COOKIE broke in at the start, was in the fray up top in the beginning three deep on the outside, was gathered back letting the engaged duo go on with it at the half, started to creep up on the leaders three wide on the turn by the quarter pole, loomed boldly outside in the four path at the top of the lane did not switch leads until very late at the seventy yard marker but by then was still well on her way edging clear for the win. BITTER BULLET settled into stride sitting in mid–pack, narrowed the gap around the turn, was on hold waiting for the cue at the quarter pole searching for a seam, hugged the rail lacking room behind the frontrunner in upper stretch, shifted out in the three path finally getting a clear lane and had a solid late run closing in to capture the runners up share. BANDOLIER was hustled at the start dueling for the lead on the inside down the backstretch, continued to slug it out with the outside foe around the bend, repelled the early speed rival in the two path in upper stretch while others were just commencing a run but needed more late on the rail in the final sixteenth just fading slightly being nabbed at the wire for the place share. CLASSIC LINES had a slow start, lagging behind gathering herself at the rear down the backside, figured things out extending her stride smartly taking closer order on the turn by the quarter pole, moved to the four path straightening out for home and had good late energy to be a fringe player outside of runners in the end. MARCH battled on the outside for the top spot down the back straight, continued to be the pacesetters thorn in the side arguing outside for the lead around the turn, shifted to the three path unable to match strides between horses who were making a rally turning for home and yielded to others in the final furlong. BAYTOWN ONA stalked down the backstretch ahead of only the slow starter, was scrubbed on in the two path with three furlongs to go trying to keep up to rivals on the turn, continued in the three path at the top of the stretch but lacked a rally through the lane.
