SECRET STORM was bumped by the outside foe on the break, had a stalking position on the outside along the back straight, started to uncork a run between rivals two wide at the quarter pole, was full of run in the five-path gathering more speed at the top of the stretch and got up in the shadow of the wire outside at the finish line. CUT'EM LOOSE had a slim lead on the rail in the early stages, edged away just off the fence in upper stretch, did not switch leads in the drive to the finish line, stubbornly fought on to the wire but was nabbed by the winner outside in the last few jumps. DISSECTOLOGIST hounded the pace on the outside down the backstretch and through the oval, still was in the thick of things in the four path at the top of the lane but evened out in deep stretch holding for the show money. BANKER'S HOURS broke inwards on the start, sat isolated in the middle of the pack down the backstretch, was scrubbed for more keeping pace with horses in midturn, shifted out four wide between rivals in upper stretch, had to alter course to get a clear path five wide at the sixteenth pole and finished up with good energy settling for the minors while not that far off the winner in the end. BOLD RELOAD had the inside keeping a close eye on the leader, inched up at the five sixteenths pole taking the short way around the bend, shifted out three wide in with a chance straightening out for the drive but failed to fire inside of horses in the final furlong. ENCHANT ME had an outside tracking position, was urged for more chasing the lead trio unable to gain throughout the turn, was floated out by the inside runner six wide turning for home and could not offer a stretch rally, tiring in mid-stretch. DIVINE LEADER was unhurried seeing the field on the fence, was asked for more by the rider right-handed at the three-furlong pole making little impact around the bend and could not factor on the fence in the final eighth of a mile.
