B. g, (Apr), by Ami's Holiday – Alkeline , by Not Bourbon . Trainer Vassilieva Katerina. Bred by Colebrook Farms (Ont–C).

BOURBONONAHOLIDAY galloped along at the back end finding his stride down the backstretch, started to reach for more ground circling around runners three wide at the three furlong pole, shifted out to the seven path full of run in upper stretch and powered past under steady left handed encouragement outside of the leaders in deep stretch for the late charging win. MISS D'S PRIDE was nestled on the fence watching the lead threesome, began to inch up just off the rail around the bend, was coming to the leader in the two path under a busy ride midway down the stretch, poked his head in front briefly with seventy yards to go but could not withstand the strong late charge by the winner outside in the late going. MIAH SAID had the lead on the rail along the backside, continued to set the pace by a narrow margin while hounded outside throughout the turn, edged away from the pesky early speed foe straightening out for home but could not find something in reserve late being caught on the outside by a couple of late closing rivals in deep stretch. DJOSER reared up in the gate prior to the start, settled all alone in midfield down the backside, started to make a move picking up the bit two wide in midturn, shifted to the three path in the hunt between challengers at the top of the lane, finished up gradually for a minor role in the end but was in the thick of the battle until the seventy-yard marker. MY BOY BRUCE stalked on the inside of another with a half mile still to go, was relegated to the tail end on the rail with three eighths from home, skimmed the fence at the top of the lane and had good late energy inside runners in the final furlong. SPRINGER prompted the issue three deep down the backstretch, chased the engaged twosome under a vigorous through the bend, shifted to the four path for the drive to the finish line but faded in the final eighth of a mile. GINGER'S HOLIDAY had a stalking role outside foes at the half, made little progress between horses two wide in the turn running, swung out widest having the eight path in upper stretch but lacked a rally down the lane. BAHAMA VILLAGE had a tracking spot three deep watching the front three, was scrubbed on just off the rail along the turn but was going the wrong way being passed on both sides by the quarter pole and faltered at the top of the stretch. COOLCOLLECTED pressed the pace between rivals in the beginning, continued to force the issue outside off the leaders flank around the turn, had nothing left coming up empty three wide in upper stretch and was not persevered with in the final furlong.
