GLASWEIGIAN stalked from outside three wide into the turn, advanced on that bend taking the lead by the quarter, edged just clear past the furlong marker then just held from an inside rival. RIDE FOR THE PURSE settled at the rear shifting in, saved ground on the turn, rallied inside. BEE ME settled off the pace saving ground near the inside on the turn, swung out five wide, kept on well outside runners late. GUS'S DRUMBEET broke out a bit but soon moved to the lead and clear, shifted in to set a pressured pace inside, weakened in the stretch. GOOD TO BE LUCKY switched outside the leader then moved forward between foes, vied on the turn, faltered in the stretch. SNIPER JACK raced at the back off the inside and made no impact, was eased through the stretch and walked off.
