DUCK DUCK DUCK got away well obtaining a brief early lead, settled into stride dropping off a pair intent on the lead, stalked three wide into the turn, fanned five wide into upper stretch, struck the fore about the eighth pole drifting in just a bit and edged away under steady handling. WINE AFTER WHISKEY was urged forward at the start, pressed the pacesetter from outside, challenged leaving the turn taking a brief lead at the top of the stretch, was no match for the winner but second best. GONE WITH DUWYN shifted in early, moved up inside but had to pause just briefly in behind a runners, got through inside on the turn racing in behind the top pair, came out a path in upper stretch splitting rivals near the eighth pole, ran on but needed more. AUNTIE'S BAMBINO got away well, settled into stride, raced in behind foes near the inside toward the rear heading to the turn, steadied at the three-eighths, came out six wide at the top of the stretch and improved with late interest. SILVER IS BEST chased the leading pair inside, was off the rail on the turn, swung four wide into upper stretch, lacked the needed late kick. BIG BOLD AND FIRST was outside at the rear into the turn, fanned seven wide into upper stretch, needed more to threaten. QUADZILLA was urged forward inside, set a pressured pace, weakened in the stretch.
