B. f, (May), by Midnight Lute – Seductionist , by Midshipman . Trainer Tharrenos William. Bred by Bellwoods Farm (Ont–C).

MIDNITE SADIE had a good spot nestled on the rail watching the lead trio, began to reel in the pacesetter around the oval, pounced three wide on the outside turning for home, drifted inwards even though under left handed encouragement clearing off for the lead getting to the rail with an eighth of a mile to go and was kept to the task late, holding sway from the outside closing in rival at the wire. SILVERDART was situated on the outside in the middle of the pack going four deep, started to uncork a rally going four wide between runners at the quarter pole, shifted out five to six wide full of run, charged home closing in the last furlong but just could not get to the winner in time. CAN'T ARGUE THAT hopped slightly then was taken up when in tight between horses soon after the break, trailed the field gathering herself down the backside, lagged behind on the the turn, began to pass inside runners three wide at the top of the lane, darted to the fence gaining momentum at the furlong pole and had a sharp late rally to get up in the last few jumps for the third place share. HEARTY CHRISTINI narrowly had the front end between rivals in the beginning, dropped slightly back with the outside rival making a quick move seizing command heading into the turn, chased the frontrunner on the rail through the turn, shifted to the two path in the mix still at the top of the stretch but was outfinished by rivals in the final sixteenth of a mile to settle for a minor placing in the end. ANELA KAI settled between runners in midfield down the backside, kept pace running evenly with horses on either side while going three wide around the bend, moved out to the four path straightening for home but faded in the final furlong. GIRL'S NITE OUT prompted the pace in the three path outside two others along the back straight, shot clear getting to the rail opening up at the three furlong pole, was collared outside by the winner while travelling two wide in upper stretch, had to be checked losing her path on the fence at the furlong marker and wilted thereafter. DARING DAME broke out on the start, settled close to the back inside runners early on, made a brief rally through the turn splitting runners two wide from the three eighths pole to the quarter marker, could not sustain the run in the drive and folded in the three path in the final furlong. I LOVE PRESENTS broke inwards on the start, stalked ahead of only one other runner while going four deep along the backside, could not advance trying to circle five wide around horses along the turn, shifted out widest in the seven path in upper stretch but came up empty, having little to offer in the running down the lane. SACRED PRAYER pressed the pace on the rail in the beginning, was in tight, checked repeatedly on the fence dropping back from the half mile pole until the midway point through the turn to be near the rear at the quarter marker, was checked again being brushed by the outside foe turning for home and could not make any impression inside in the drive to the finish line.
