Dk. b or br. g, (May), by War of Will – Cost, by Pulpit. Trainer Casse Mark. Bred by Saintsbury Farms Inc (Ont–C).

COST OF WAR was away alertly prompting the issue three deep down the backside, let the frontrunner go on with it while still keeping a close eye staying well in range throughout the turn, started to reel in the pacesetter at the quarter pole when called upon, moved in on the outside by the furlong pole and powered past at the sixteenth pole to win going away when crossing the finish line. SHAK TOWN had a slim lead on the fence in the beginning, shook loose up top moving comfortably around the oval, skimmed the fence holding the advantage in upper stretch, still was on top but by a diminishing margin with a rival bearing down at the furlong pole, had no answer when the swept past on the outside in deep stretch and still finished up well enough to easily best the rest for the runners up share. IMPULSIVE BID was void of any early foot trailing the engaged trio early on, lagged behind the group on the turn, shifted out to the three-path turning for home and showed some late interest picking up the tired inside foe by the sixteenth pole to be a distant third in the end. CAJUN INFLUENCE vied between horses leaving the gate, took back off the contesting pair at the half, tried to keep up to the front twosome on the turn but was retreating by the quarter marker and wilted on the fence in mid-stretch.
