B. g, (Jun), by Gamble's Exchange – Miss D Teaches Me, by Bluesbreaker. Trainer Keen Howard. Bred by Gus Diakoloukas (Ont–C).

MISS D'S PRIDE tracked the contesting duo while rating kindly on the fence, waited patiently on the rail measuring the lead pair around the turn at the quarter pole, angled out three wide looming boldly at the top of the stretch, powered past under a vigorous ride at the sixteenth pole and won going away under an ideal trip. GINGER'S HOLIDAY duelled on the rail from the onset, continued to throw it down with the outside horse throughout the bend, dug in stubbornly inside the two challengers in mid-stretch but gave way grudgingly to the winner at the sixteenth pole while holding on gamely for the place share at the finish line. ROAD TO VERSAILLES battled on the outside right from the get-go, remained on the outside flank of the pacesetter fighting up top around the entire turn, argued for the front end between rivals with a furlong to go but faded in deep stretch easily securing the show money at the wire. DILWAALA had a tardy start trailing on the inside when the gates opening up, began to pick up the bit passing a couple of outside rivals leaving the half, was scrubbed on for more in midturn edging up by the quarter pole between horses, shifted out to the four path part of the front group outside foes in upper stretch, could not kick on though in the final furlong and ran on one paced settling for a minor placing in the end. MIAH SAID was situated on the outside of the eventual winner watching the embattled pair down the backside as well as throughout the turn, gave way being pushed out by the inside foe five wide turning for home and had little to offer in the stretch running. UNCARRICK TERISTIC was brushed by the outside foe on the break, settled between horses part of the back threesome with a half mile to run, lagged well behind in the turn, failed to menace in the stretch drive but did catch a straggler in the late going. CLIVE CROSS broke inwards at the start, travelled outside three deep of two others part of the rear trio at the half, made little impact going three wide around the turn and stopped abruptly in final furlong eased up crossing the wire.
