SPLASH OF BOURBON settled on the outside of another keeping tabs on the pacesetter, inched closer at the half, moved comfortably shadowing the leader outside on the bend, poked her head in front by the quarter pole, shifted three wide having a narrow advantage outside rivals turning for home, stubbornly dug in down the stretch, was looking for the wire with horses bearing down on each with only a sixteenth left to run and managed to just last at the finish line in a very tight photo for the top three placings. TEQUILASOUPERNOVA was quite content relaxing behind the pacesetter down the backstretch as well as throughout the turn, skimmed the fence very much in the thick of things turning for home, hesitated on the rail briefly inside runners with the rider getting busy in upper stretch, gradually started to get into gear coming on in the final furlong and surged inside two others in the shadow of the wire but just missed getting up for the win in a tight three way finish. SECRET LOAD co-trailed on the inside down the back straightaway, made little progression two wide inside another around the bend, skimmed the fence in upper stretch starting to lengthen stride, angled off the engaged trio four wide at the furlong pole and had a sharp turn of foot late, charging home in deep stretch but needed one more jump at the finish line. ARIANNA'S TOUR assumed command setting a moderate pace, slowed the tempo down around the turn, was headed outside at the quarter pole, fought on between foes in the two path through the lane, faded ever so slightly in deep stretch and was on the wrong end of a four horses finishing at the wire being only a fringe player in the end. TANZANITE LILY sat all alone in midfield, made a brief move ranging up outside of horses three wide in midturn, could not quicken away with the lead three at the top of the stretch and yielded by the furlong marker. PAGEANT QUEEN shared the rear on the outside, came under a drive three wide making no gain on her rivals throughout the turn, remained in the three path for the stretch run but came up empty in the drive.
