Dk. b or br. m, (Apr), by Catalina Cruiser – She Be Striking–GB , by Smart Strike . Trainer Chircop Steven. Bred by Nancy Mazzoni (Ky).

DAZZLING CRUISER had the rail position ahead of only one runner in the beginning stages, pull the rider closer improving on the fence along the backside sitting just behind the pacesetter, waited under a hard hold measuring the contesting trio on the last turn at the quarter pole, had a big opening scraping paint turning for home, shot through in mid-stretch battling inside runners to the wire and under a well-timed surge got the nod perfectly at the finish line to get the win inside another. Z TRAIN (IRE) settled in midfield on the outside going three wide around the first of two turns, continued down the backstretch rating kindly waiting for the cue to go, closed in sharply prompting the pace three wide at the five sixteenths pole, angled out to the four-path fighting outside two others in early stretch for the lead, battled head-to-head in the late running but was denied at the wire in a tight finish. GO GIFFEN settled at the rear in the first turn, co-trailed shifting to the outside down the backstretch, travelled three wide at the back end but the field was tightly bunched at the midway point of the last turn, swung out widest in the five-path straightening out home well within striking distance in upper stretch and closed in belatedly outside getting the show money. JUST MAGNIFICENT travelled between horses in mid-division, dropped back to share the rear inside down the backstretch, started to inch up having the rail on the far bend, skimmed the fence taking the corner and had late energy getting up on the last jump for a minor placing. SPUN AROUND pressed the pace on the outside in the beginning, took back slightly content to track the frontrunner outside along the back straight, took closer order vying between foes for the front end at the five sixteenths pole, dueled in the three path with runners on either side in upper stretch, could not find more in the late drive though and faded with a sixteenth left to run just getting caught losing the photo for the minors. BLAMELESS GHOST had a slim lead on the rail around the first turn, edged away for a clear advantage down the backstretch, continued up top narrowly taking the short way around the final bend, was engulfed by runners on both sides two wide turning for home and emptied out by the sixteenth pole.
