Ch. f, (Feb), by Jimmy Creed – Call Me Baby , by El Nino. Trainer Attard Sid C. Bred by Danny Pagliaroli (Ont–C).

ANGEL DANIELLE had the lead outside a few runners leaving the gate, cleared away finally shaking loose on the rail by the half, dictated terms up top unopposed running smoothly around the turn, spurted away once again under a well rationed out ride when urged right-handed by mid-stretch and was kept to the task to the end holding safely for the frontrunning score. LORRAINE'S BEAUTY chased the pacesetter outside down the backstretch, continued to go after the pacesetter inside another throughout the turn, shifted to the three path in the thick of things between horses straightening out for the home, never gave in running on up gamely through the stretch drive but was just second best to the winner on this day. MIGHTY TANNER pressed the pace inside initially, was reined in to sit in mid-division on the fence by the half, took the shortest way around the oval keeping pace with outside foes, lengthened stride coming on hugging the rail at the top of the stretch and finished up mildly between runners in the late going to capture the show money. HYMN TO HER was void of early foot leaving the gate at the back of the pack, improved slightly down the backside, had the two path between horses but was relegated back to the rear in midturn, shifted to the three path looking for seam coming on with a rally at the head of the lane and finished up gradually four wide in the final furlong to be a fringe player in the end. REGAL AFFAIR was unhurried along the backside seeing the group at the half mile pole, offered a brief turn of foot circling three to four wide from the three eighths pole until the quarter marker, was floated out in the six path with the field bunching up turning for home, could not sustain the rally in the drive and wilted in the final furlong. LADY IONA had the outside sitting in mid-pack with a half mile still to run, closed in to track the leader three wide at the three-furlong pole, shifted to the five path in with a chance still for a piece of the prize well in range at the top of the stretch but could not find more late and faltered in the final eighth of a mile outside rivals.
