SOUPED UP stalked or pressed from just off and outside the pacesetter, raced two to three wide on the turn edging closer leaving that bend and asked for more, drew even past the furlong marker dueling for the lead outside the pacesetter, dug in late and prevailed. WESTERN WHIRL went to the fore to set the pace just off the inside, edged just clear briefly at the seven-sixteenths but was soon under more pressure from the outside rival, put to urging coming past the quarter pole, dueled from mid-stretch still in an all-out battle while coming out a bit, was ultimately denied in a head-bobbing finish. NOTORIOUS GANGSTER broke a half-step slowly, tucked in behind runners just after the start, bumped a foe after the opening furlong, moved up in pursuit outside mid-pack, was forced about four then five wide through the turn and encouraged along past the five-sixteenths, was asked for more leaving the bend, kept on in the stretch but needed more late. ITS BOURBON THIRTY shifted in early settling inside and dropping back off the leaders heading the turn, was patiently handled racing just off the fence through that bend, came out six then eight wide in mid-stretch, gained well outside but too late. POULIN IN O T was just a bit reluctant to load, broke a half-step slowly then was urged forward between runners, tracked in behind along the inside into and on the turn, waited briefly past the quarter pole, was asked in upper- to mid-stretch as room along the rail presented itself but could only run on evenly. AWESOME BOURBON switched out a bit in the early going, was bumped at the five-and one-half, chased from between foes up the backstretch and on the turn, came past the quarter pole four wide and under urging, lacked the needed late kick. BAXLEY was outsprinted early, switched out for the turn advancing outside foes coming five to six wide past the quarter pole under urging and within range but could not sustain the effort.
