KEYTOTHEPARK broke a step slow at the start, galloped along under a snug hold finding her feet co-trailing inside another through the backstretch, was let out a notch reaching for more ground at the three eighths pole, shifted out circling around foes four wide at the quarter mile marker, continued to swoop around rivals widest in the six path full of run turning for home and stormed on by at the sixteenth pole outside taking control and winning going away at the wire with an impressive stretch kick. VELOCITA was pushed out by the inside rival at the start, recouped to be forwardly placed three deep early into the backstretch, dropped back slightly at the half sitting in mid-division, started to make a rally three wide at the quarter pole to be in the hunt five wide at the top of the lane, drifted in for moment under right-handed encouragement in upper stretch having be taken a hold of briefly losing momentum for a stride or two, was no match for the winner in the final furlong but did fight back to get up right at the wire in a photo for the runners up share oustdie. SKYDIGGER was the lone speed unchallenged comfortably clearing off getting to the fence by the five eighths pole, rolled along up top having a diminishing advantage by the quarter pole while slowing the tempo down in the turn running, had the two path down the lane holding on still with a furlong to go, offered no resistance when the winner stormed past at the sixteenth pole and just got nabbed outside right at the finish line for the second place share. SANS DANCER broke out at the start, kept a close eye on the frontrunner while in the two path along the back straight, chased two wide narrowing the margin by the quarter pole, moved to the four path straightening out for home in the mix for a share but needed more late fading in deep stretch when on the losing end between foes in a three finish for the third place share. ADORABLE ANGEL was jostled between runners at the start, settled in midfield initially on the outside, stalked inside another by the half mile pole, offered a mild run two to three wide between horses with outside rivals charging around quicker at the quarter pole, had the two path still in with a chance in upper stretch but idled by the sixteenth pole and could not threaten late. MOMANDA had the inside position in mid-pack in the beginning, closed in advancing smartly on the rail by the half, was driven on having the fence at the five sixteenths pole trying to just hold forward position and failed to menace lacking a rally in the stretch drive. FLY TRUE NORTH was bumped on the inside at the start sharing the rear outside in the early stages, travelled three wide but could not quicken with the eventual winner who was commencing a rally inside at the three-furlong pole, could see the field backing away in midturn, lost touch with the pack in the three path at the top of the stretch and cantered home.
