STUNNINGLY PERFECT tossed her head breaking slowly on the start, recovered smartly ranging up on the rail to seize control inside by the half, increased the advantage up top effortlessly cruising around the turn on the rail, skimmed the fence having things all her way turning for home and won as pleased well ahead of rivals when crossing the finish line. FEELING SUPERSONIC was checked on the outside soon after the break with the frontrunner bearing outwards, trailed by many down the backside, lengthened her stride closing the gap on rivals three wide midway through the turn, fought outside another for the runners up prize with the winner far ahead in upper stretch and finished up well enough to be a clear but distant second. RAINBOW TRAIL was away alertly but getting out soon after the break, had command early on in the backstretch off the rail, relinquished the lead inside midway along the backstretch, was nudged on for more at the three eighths pole giving futile chase to the leader around the oval, battled inside for the place share with the winner long gone at the top of the stretch but had little left late folding inside at the eighth pole.
